

20. 11. 2010

Let`s start

It`s in the middle of november, but some peple already start with Christmas spirit.

Stores are full of Christmas decorations and products, they want to sell.

In school, we were making products for New Year`s sales.

And the most important: children already write letters to St. Nicholas!

